(Pictures on back page.)
New York, Sept. 14.—(Special.)-There may have been some fight in the past that was greater than the one staged tonight at the Polo grounds between Champion Jack Dempsey and Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine giant, but if there were it was away back in the dark ages, perhaps in the era of the stone

When Dempsey finished the battle by landing a desperate left to Firpo's jaw in the fifty-seventh second of the second round-a blow that dropped the South American giant for the full count of ten-there were more than 90,000 persons all but in a state of bedlam.

Champ Near Defeat.

Dempsey is still champion of the world, but he was closer to defeat than he or any of the 90,000 persons present could easily believe. If he hadn't clipped his rival with that desperate left in the fifty-seventh second of that second round there is no telling what might have happened in the next moment. If Firpo's right Fair in Texas Town Is had landed once more as it did in the first round, Mr. Jack Dempsey in all likelihood would be the

FIRST ROUND-Dempsey started to swing lefts and rights to Luis' head and Jack dropped Luis with left hook to head. Firpo got up and rushed at Dempsey. They clinched. Firpo drove hard right to Dempsey's heart. Dempsey dropped Firpo again with another left hook to the head and again with the same, but Luis got up. Firpo knocked Dempsey down with a hard right to the head, but Dempsey got up and knocked Luis down again. Firpo landed hard right to the champion's head. Firpo rushed Dempsey to ropes and knocked him out of the ring. With right to the head Flrpo smashed Dempsey to ropes and had champ in bad shape. Firpo smashed Dempsey with several rights to head and Jack was holding on at the bell. It was a furious round in which the knocksey was on the floor twice and Firpo six times. SECOND ROUND-Firpo swung a right to Dempsey's shoulder. Dempsey hooked a left to the chin and then drove both fists to the body and the challenger fell to the floor. Firpo, bleeding and groggy, was cornered and floored for the second time, but he quickly jumped to his feet. Dempsey chased Firpo to the center of the ring, whipping over a left hook and a right to the chin, knocking the giant Argentinian flat. With blood trickling from his mouth, Firpo rolled over on his back while Referee Gal-lagher counted him out. Dempsey nervously rushed over and helped pick up his fallen foe and then

Price Speaks from the Regal Platform in a Voice heard from Coast to Coast

While the Shoe Trade as a whole in this country has been standing still or slipping for the last six months, we have been marching ahead and making new records in every store in the Regal Chain from New York to San Francisco.

The reason for the largest increase in the history of this business was not due to any new Policy because we're doing business today on the Old Platform on which this business was built thirty years ago—that is from Maker to Wearer, One Quality, One Profit and One Price, $6.60 for all Regal Shoes in every Regal Store from Coast to Coast.

Concentrating on One Quality in the factory, cut the cost of Making. Selling direct from the Maker to Wearer, cut the cost of Selling. Increased sales in Sixty Regal Stores from Coast to Coast gave us the Volume that made it possible to give you the Value that can't be duplicated at the Price.

Our One Price Policy made even a stronger appeal to the keen woman buyer who does a little window shopping and compares values. She resents the idea of being shown something different that costs more when she gets into the store, and likes to know before she enters she can have any style she selects for Six-Sixty.

"In that Chicago led the nation." said E. R. Litsinger, member of the board of review. "It is now generally known as the Martin system, and since 1907 most, if not all, of the leading cities of the United States have adopt-valuation on lots of 100 feet depth and causes the publication of that valuation. The value of a front foot is increased or decreased as it is affected by sundry prescribed conditions—whether the lot is more or less than 100 feet in depth, whether it is on a corner, and whether the side street has a higher or lower value than the street upon which the lot faces.

4 Mr. Litsinger would go much farther and value property according to the uses to which it can be applied under the zoning ordinance. Requests for an outline of his plan have been coming in by the score.

Asks Extension of System.

Mr. Litsinger in a letter to Mayor Dever a month ago urged that the Martin system be applied to all Chicago, asserting this has been done in other cities. But he would have it adapted to the zoning plan.

Briefly, the Martin system is as follows: It adopts a front foot basis of valuation on lots of 100 feet depth and causes the publication of that valuation. The value of a front foot is increased or decreased as it is affected by sunder the simple base of the martin system.

An amendment to the ordinance requiring building owners to furnish heat when the outside temperature falls to 58 degrees will be drafted and submitted to the council on Oct. 17, Dr. Bundesen declared.

"Of course, I hope that a majority of the landlords will cooperate with the department from a sense of fairness and decency. ### A DEBT TO BE PROMPTLY PAID.

The attempt of politics to starve out the special grand jury's inquiry into grafting politics was an insult to the community and a stab at good government. The Union League club secured funds to defeat it and advanced money to meet mry expenditures to carry on. Yesterday to committee of the county board unanimously approved repayment of a little over $5,000 advanced by the club in this matter, and we assume its action will be ratified by the full board at its day. The club performed a service ich should have been provided for as a matter course by the county and its advances are a debt which no reputable public body can repudiate or evade. The prompt recognition of this by the finance committee is gratifying and the community will be grateful when the debt is paid and this sorry incident is closed, if not forgotten.

Editorial of the Day

THE PRESIDENT'S IDEA. [Cedar Rapids (Ia.) Gazette.]

President Coolidge, with typical New England common sense, suggests that if the American people make up their minds to seek to stabilize conditions by moving slowly and to develop confidence by being worthy of it and trusting each other, the country will make advance. This home spun philosophy is as practical as it is samible.

There is no doubt conditions would be more stable if there had been fewer headlong attempts to normalize business and industrial conditions without regard for traditional cautionsess. Much of the reaction that set in after the "good times" that fellowed the world war was caused by the lack of conservative foresight.

PREPARE BABIES FOR

T may seem to be a matter of no importance, but a lot of babies get in trouble about weaning time because they have not been trained to suck a bottle, to drink from a cup, or to cat from a spoon. Here is a baby that has been raised at the breast. The mother has given plenty of milk and the baby has grown well and has escaped bowel troubles and those forms of contagion that bottle babies are prone to get.

But now it has come time to wean the boy. Breast milk alone is no longer the best food, nor even a satisfactory feed. When the mother gets ready to make the change, no amount of coaxing or the change, no amount of coaxing or

A young baby gets water enough in its milk. Therefore, the small daily allowance of sweetened water from the bottle is purely for purposes of training. The same principle applies to spoon feeding. Ordinarily, when a baby is offered food from a spoon, he neither knows the technique of using it nor has he memory of a pleasant taste associated with a spoon. In a rather strange but rather beautiful book, "Barrie Marvell," Charles Vince has recorded the dreams and imaginative advantures of a boy, on the surface just an ordinary youth, though a lonely one, but in his mind a gay adventurer, though often a saddened one. I have always thought that there is a lot of rot written about child psychology. He says sometimes, you should abandon metrical form alto getter, and he believes apparently that the regular, recurring rhythms of the fides, the stars, the human heart and of almost every true poet from Homer to the present day were an invention of Queen Victoria. His own contribution is what he calls free verse' and, as Mr. Chesterton recentry said, 'You might as well call sleep ing the affect of the first the contribution is what he calls free verse' and, as Mr. Chesterton recentry send, 'You might as well call sleep ing the affect of the first the policy said, 'You might as well call sleep in the calls of the calls should be contributed in the calls of the calls

Lord and Lady Aberdeen, who might be described as the Puritans in the peerage, are writing their reminiscences. Lord Aberdeen was Gladstone's home rule lord lieutenant of Ireland and he and his wife were among his most intimate friends during the later years of his long life. I am told that there will be many of Gladstone's stories in the coming book, but I am arraid that all the good Gladstone's stories have been told long ago. The present generation is not in the least interested in the masterful radical statesman, whom Victoria detested and the Aberdeens themselves are not very exciting people.

My congratulations on your discriminating taste.

When I first knew Arthur Lynch he was the Paris correspondent of the Daily Mall: that was many years ago. From Paris he went to South Africa during the war and fought with the Boers, and was subsequently tried for high treason in London and sentenced to death. Of course, he was a member of the Irish party in the house of commons. Lynch is doctor, journalist, poet, and mystic, and Heaven knows what besides. The book of memories which he is at present writing should be good reading.

Lord Jellicog's war book, "The Crisis of the Naval War," has been translated into Italian and privately published by the Italian and privately published by the Italian government for circulation among the officers of the Italian fieet.

Messrs. Macmillan have published Vachet Lindsay's "Collected Poems," and this edition will add to Mr. Lindsay's growing reputation in this country. Mr. Lindsay had to bear down prejudice hers. He is tremendously alive and it is still rather bad form in England to be too much alive. But Like B. L. T.

A Lest Lady is the story of a woman so exquisite in her beauty and her allure as to be wholly apart from the small town in which she lived, a creature exotic to her charms only because the lows village which was her background was so commonplace, a being of the utmost caucacess and first her being of the utmost caucaces and first he keeps doing it, young Mr. Hart story opens while she and her husband the cashfultes a devotee of beauty. The story opens while she castiles a devotee of beauty. The story opens while she castiles to be her home. It closes with the news of her death, is min may will be a memorable light to the consistent of the town which is destined to be her home. It closes with the news of her death, is min with the same iron, and who is sill. They're really delightful. and Charles Marriott are the two most popular English novelists in Chicago. My congratulations on your discriminating taste.

The winner of the Harper $3,000 prize novel competition has been announced. It is Miss Margaret Wilson of 440 Normal parkway, Chicago. Her novel is called "The Able McLaugh lina."

The prise winning manuscript, chosen from among 739 competitors, is a story of early Scotch settlers in a ploneer Iowa community. It is Miss Wilson's first book. Before entering the competition, she had confined herself to short stories, many of which have been published in the Atlantic Monthly.

Miss Wilson was born in 1892 in the town of Traer, in Tama county, Ia. She graduated from the University of Chicago in 1994, and then went to India as a misstonary. When she came hack to America she taught school for a time, and would probably have continued to if she had not heard a lecture in which American writers were lambasted. She then and there Grays seem to be the wanted tailleur color, achieved through mixtures or solid effects. Our three button box coat model comes in gray velours, with a fine walking hat of hatter's plush banded with velours.

The tailored suit, always good, is best at the spring and fall changes of season, when everybody is tired of everything that is passed and craves clean lines and absence of straining after effects and dewdads. Skirts in Paris, they tell us, are from ten to twelve inches off the ground. Here they do not seem that short, but, on the other hand, neither are long skirts in evidence on the street. Six or seven in evidence on the street. Six or seven inches from the ground make the

"I wonder!" said the Falcon, keeping perfectly still.

"Nor time to hit me."

"You haven't the stuffing to shoot an unarmed man," said the Falcon, and anatched at the cartridge clip.

"I'm afraid I have," said Segrove jerkily.

Three seconds later Segrove was taking the gun.

"Stand back!" he called to the workmen who crowded round. "Stand sail Don't crush, there! Oh, hullo, Bedford! Sorry you can't arrest him, and man. I'm afraid it's your duty to arrest me instead."

As he spoke he handed Bedford his sevolver.

"Nonsense!" said Bedford. "I'll just take the names of these fellows who was it. The coroner will want them.

"You had better get back to a hotel, Mr. Segrove. You look a bit dickey." Its leaked down on the crumpled figure at this feet. "He got a run for his man all right! Didn't think he'd put up such a fight."
